Valid claims will be settled by cleaning, repairing or replacing the damaged product. If a repair can be made, it must be considered prior to a replacement being considered. Neither the value of repairs or replacement shall exceed the maximum liability.

Over time the colour, shade and appearance of your product is likely to change and therefore in the event new covers are required we will supply parts based on the original appearance of your product. Wherever possible we will try and limit any differences but our liability is to repair the product based on the original specification. We may decide to offer you a cash settlement in lieu of a repair for the value of our repair.

In the event of a stain claim the Administrator's first response may be the despatch of a specialist cleaning product for your stain along with a claim form. If the cleaning product is unsuccessful in removing the stain then please complete the claim form and the Administrator may then arrange for an inspection of your furniture to decide upon the most economical method of settling your claim.

Where we are not able to clean, repair or replace the damaged product satisfactorily we will issue a credit note for use as the same retailer from which you originally purchased the product. If the retailer has ceased to trade or has moved, we will issue a credit note for use at a similar retailer of our choice that is local to you.

The value of the credit note will be the amount you paid for the product less any previous claim costs, subject to the maximum liability. Where items are non-integral and therefore easily separated, such as a sideboard and chest of drawers or arm caps, scatter cushions and other accessories, they are treated as separate products in the event of a claim.

If your claim is settled by credit note we reserve the right to take sole ownership of the defective product. If we chose to take ownership, the defective product will be collected following the delivery of the replacement product. If we choose not to collect the defective product as above, the ownership of it and the responsibility for it will remain solely with you"

Dear Customer

Congratulations on purchasing the UK's most comprehensive furniture protection plan.

This plan covers you against the cost of cleaning and repairs if your furniture is accidentally damaged or stained, if the structure fails, or if your carpet is accidentally stained. Naturally this coverage is dependent upon the level of cover you purchased from your retailer and you should check the enclosed certificate to ensure that this matches your expectations.

We would also draw your attention to the aforementioned certificate so that you can familiarise yourself with the terms and conditions of cover provided. Any claims will be managed in accordance with these terms. All claims must be reported within 7 days of the incident that caused the stain or damage. Furthermore claims can be reported 24 hours per day and claims can also be made by visiting www.staingardclaims.co.uk

It is essential that you are able to identify and be specific about the cause of any damage or staining that you are claiming for.

Whilst your Staingard policy provides comprehensive cover it is not a substitute for sensible use and care of your furniture. The following is intended as a guide to help get the most from both your furniture and your protection plan.

1 In the event of a stain, please ensure that you are able to identify the nature of the stain as this will help us to provide the best possible service in stain removal.

2 Do not use any cleaning materials not supplied by your retailer or directly from Staingard. If in doubt please do nothing to the stain and contact us for further advice or to make a claim. Staingard will not guarantee stain removal and you may invalidate your claim status if you use materials that inhibit the ability of our staff to remove such stains. Damage resulting from the use of such unapproved cleaning materials is not covered.

3 Blot stains with clean white kitchen cloth or colourfast cotton towelling, DO NOT RUB! Rubbing will invariably result in distortion to the fabric or carpet pile making subsequent stain removal more difficult and even leaving unsightly marks. If Stained areas are rubbed and subsequently damaged prior to a Staingard technician attending then responsibility cannot be accepted by Staingard for such damage.

4 If you have been provided with a care kit from your retailer, this kit will contain the most appropriate products for routine maintenance and stain removal. Leather upholstery should always be treated with 'Staingard Leather Protection Cream' (unless it is Suede, Nubuck or Pull Up,) as this will help to prevent staining particularly from dye transfer and also make regular cleaning much easier. If you have purchased upholstery made from Suede, Nubuck or Pull -Up leather this needs more specialist attention and you should contact us or your retailer for specific maintenance advice. Regular cleaning of all upholstery items is essential to avoid the build up of such things as body oils (from perspiration), hair gels, cosmetics and medications. Specific stains resulting from these things are covered by your policy, however multiple stains and a build-up of any staining over time is not covered. If you have purchased this policy in association with carpet, dining or cabinet furniture the same guidelines apply, if you have any concerns regarding the care of such furniture or carpet please contact Staingard for advice.

5 Avoid the use of throws and cushions that are non colourfast as these can often create a build up of staining or dye transfer that can be very unsightly and difficult to remove. If in doubt about colourfastness you can test this by wetting a small area of such items and rubbing on an inconspicuous area of your leather or fabric, observe the effect and only use if you are sure of no dye transfer or staining. Remember that the build up of soiling and staining and damage due to neglect, abuse or wear and tear is not covered by your policy.

6 Enjoy your furniture and remember that Staingard in association with your retailer is committed to providing you with the best possible service to ensure that this continues for the life of your furniture.
